My Microsoft MVP Journey

Microsoft® Most Valuable Professional

Agenda

1. How to become a Microsoft MVP
2. Benefits
3. My Journey
4. What’s up with the wheels?
5. Future Content

How to become an MVP

Provide value to the community

Only contributions from the last 12 months are considered

Get nominated by an active MVP or MS FTE

Fill out the nomination

Wait for up to 90 days for the result

Benefits of becoming an MVP

Networking with other MVP and Microsoft Product Groups

Early access to road maps and features (NDA)

Nice looking trophy

We recognize and value your exceptional contributions
to technical communities
worldwide.
26 - 2027
MVP
Microsoft
Most Valuable Professional

Benefits of becoming an MVP

Networking with other MVP and Microsoft Product Groups

Early access to road maps and features (NDA)

Nice looking trophy

Microsoft and third-party licenses

What I did

New YouTube video every week

Blog post based on video transcripts

Spoke at eight conferences and Meetups

Wrote four articles for German Windows .Developer magazine

Pull requests to improve AKS documentation

Failed nomination

Nominated early 2022

Still in pandemic

Spoke at one conference and 52 blog posts

Four month wait time for answer

Meanest email ever received

Tips to get started

Create content because you love what you do

Find a niche and stick to it

Network with other MVPs

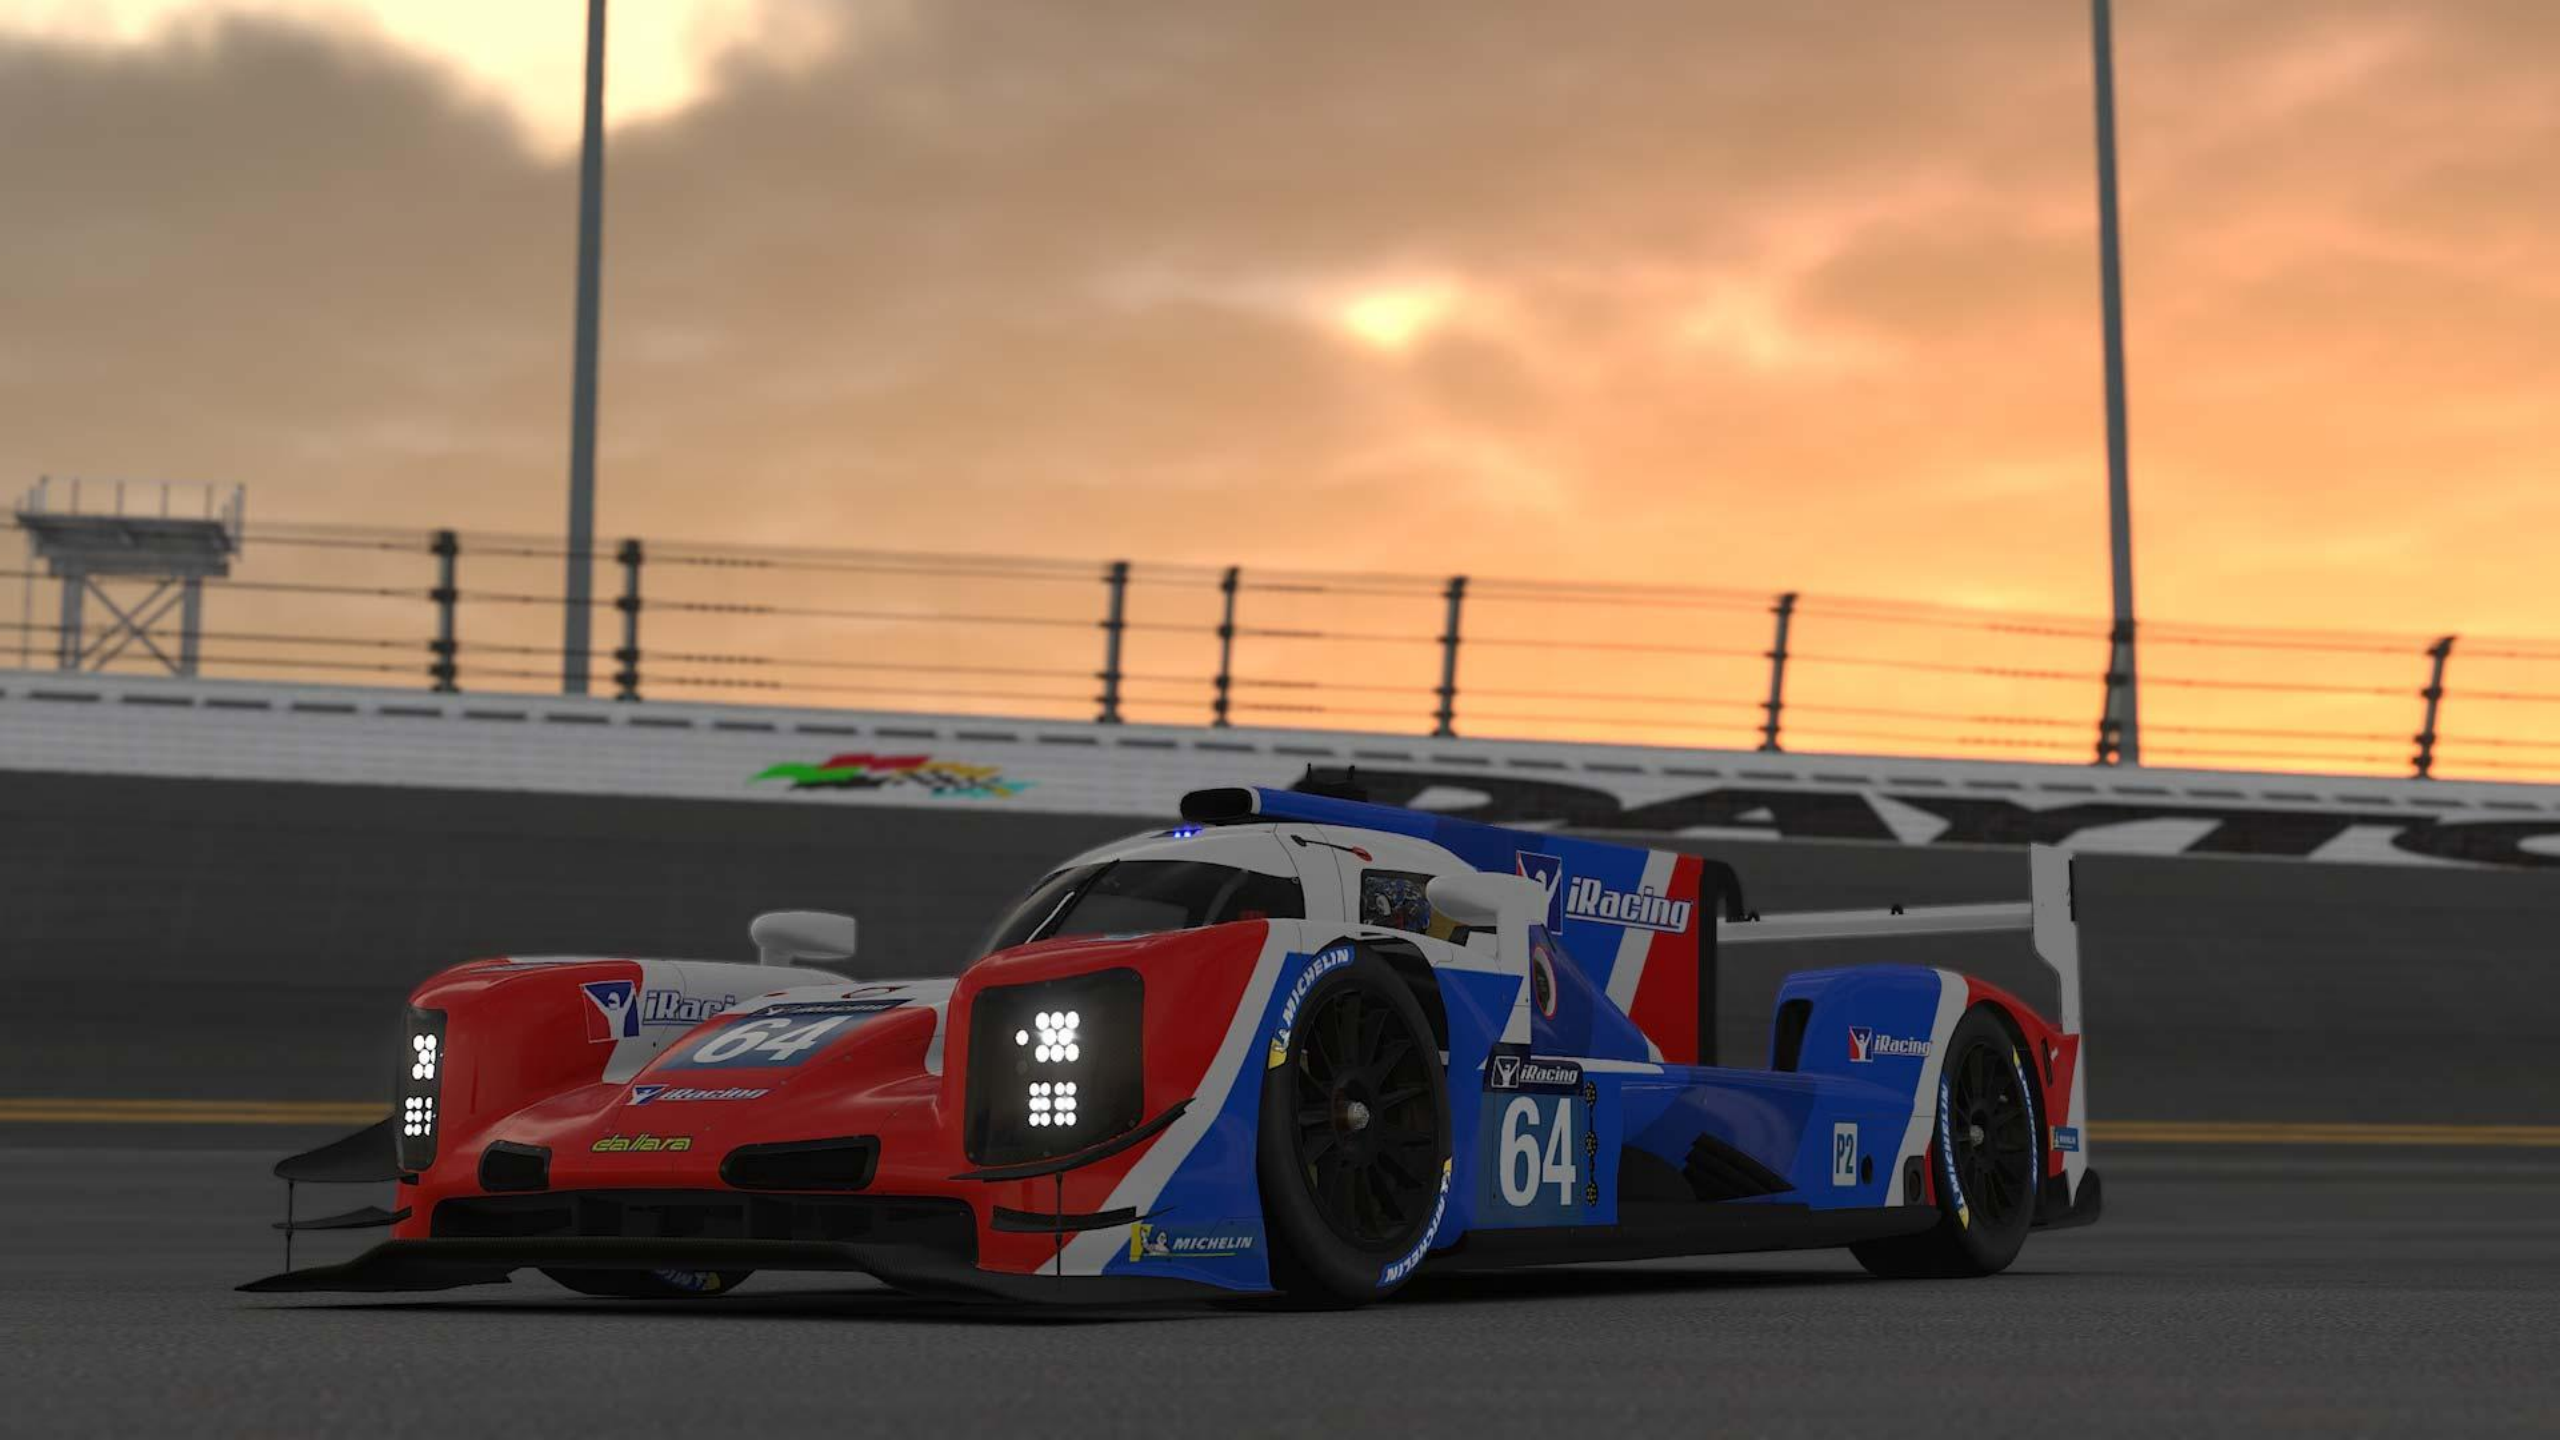
Get nominated

Steering Wheels

Big sim racing fan

Racing cars with lots of downforce

64
iRacing
Hankook



iRacing
64
MICHELIN
dallara
P2

Steering Wheels

Big sim racing fan

Racing cars with lots of downforce

Trying rally, trucks and Nascar

0:14.176
3
5336
RADIO
GIGABYTE
VIKORE
momo
FANATEC

Steering Wheels

Big sim racing fan

Racing cars with lots of downforce

Trying rally, trucks and Nascar

Mostly play iRacing

Come and say hi if you see me in a session

Future of the channel

Switch to bi-weekly uploads

More in-depth or niche AKS videos

Want to create the “AKS Chanel”

Additional videos about everything Azure possible